

The procedure which compares different programs and policies intended to produce similar outcomes is called the

- A) job cost specifications
- B) cost-benefit analysis
- C) job cost task analysis
- D) cost-effectiveness analysis

In a comparison of Leadership vs. Management, evaluation and research is an element of which orientation?

- A) people and process oriented
- B) task and process oriented
- C) process and skills oriented
- D) task and results oriented
- E) all of the above

The common elements that exist in all planning processes are

- A) community - public hearing
- B) needs or risk assessment
- C) development of alternative courses of action
- D) action plan selection
- E) debriefing on effectiveness
- F) all of the above
- G) A, C and E only
- H) B, C and D only

Several experts or individuals providing input on an issue or problem and ultimately arriving at a consensus on desirable alternatives, priorities and goals is called

- A) comprehensive planning
- B) the Delphi Technique
- C) situational leadership
- D) problem solving
- E) none of the above