

There are essentially three types of lineups commonly used by the field officer - check all three below that apply:

- (A) the field identification
- (B) the voice/phone identification
- (C) the photo identification
- (D) the formal in-station lineup
- (E) the informal in-station lineup
- (F) the jailhouse lineup

When driving on a water-covered street, above what (approximate) speed is there no longer any contact between the street surface and the patrol car's tire?

- (A) 45 mph
- (B) 50 mph
- (C) 55 mph
- (D) 60 mph
- (E) 40 mph
- (F) 35 mph
- (G) none of the above

If a child is missing, what four conditions below must be met in order for a nationwide Amber Alert to be activated? Check all four that apply:

- (A) The victim's parents must give permission for an Amber Alert to be activated, unless they are unavailable or are suspects in the case.
- (B) The investigating law enforcement agency confirms that an abduction has occurred.
- (C) The abduction is NOT be family or spousal related.
- (D) The victim is in imminent danger of serious injury or death.
- (E) There is information available that, if provided to the public, could assist in the child's safe recovery.
- (F) The victim is fourteen years of age or younger or has a proven mental or physical disability.
- (G) The victim is seventeen years of age or younger or has a proven mental or physical disability.
- (H) The national Center for Missing and Exploited Children must approve the activation

The term _____ refers to a set of fixed delusional beliefs that are accompanied by clear and orderly thinking outside the delusional system.

- (A) schizophrenia
- (B) paranoia
- (C) psychosis
- (D) neurosis

In the second stage of mob development,

- (A) the mob is functioning as a single unit and the leader and his confederates are in control.
- (B) the crowd members lose their individuality and begin to function as a single unit.
- (C) the crowd is still functioning as a conglomeration of individuals.
- (D) some outside influence begins to induce a sense of unrest and call to action in the individuals.
- (E) none of the above

The most effective position for the baton in most crowd situations is the _____ position.

- (A) wedge
 - (B) port
 - (C) thrust
 - (D) rest
 - (E) overhead
 - (F) none of the above
-

The key to effective police action at the scene of a labor-management conflict is to be

- (A) direct and forceful
- (B) completely fair and objective and protect the image of impartiality
- (C) very open and honest about police intentions toward both sides
- (D) in the background, observing and out of the way
- (E) in the forefront, separating the parties
- (F) none of the above

If circumstances require an immediate confrontation with a suspect hiding in a building or a room, as you enter do so quickly and move _____ in order to compensate for any flinching the suspect may do when firing a weapon at you (guessing that the suspect is right handed).

- (A) to your left
- (B) to your right
- (C) forward
- (D) up
- (E) down
- (F) none of the above

When you are searching for a prowler, you are usually looking for a

- (A) person running
- (B) person hiding
- (C) adult male
- (D) preadolescent or adolescent male
- (E) none of the above

The method of search when officers are assigned to search pie shaped sections of the crime scene, back and forth and then meet and change sections and repeat the search is the

- (A) foot search
- (B) spot cover
- (C) leapfrog search
- (D) spiral search
- (E) quadrant search
- (F) none of the above

Striations are _____ scratch marks cut into the surface of some material that is _____ than the tool that made the mark.

- (A) parallel / harder
- (B) parallel / softer
- (C) horizontal / harder
- (D) horizontal / softer
- (E) deep / harder
- (F) deep / softer
- (G) none of the above